Stunning period house

Located in a great position very close by to Sidcup High Street and mainline station and at the same time in a lovely residential road. This is a stunning victorian property with bare brick exterior with driveway to the front and westerly facing garden. The accommodation is laid out on 3 levels and includes 5 bedrooms, 2 receptions and 2 bathrooms along with a cloakroom on the ground floor. The property has high ceilings and is presented in good condition. The high street is a moments walk away and is jam packed with great shops, services and restaurants and the mainline station is also within short walking distance and offers fast and frequent access into London. The location is show popular as a host of great Bexley schools are very nearby.
