DESCRIPTION

Lot 1 – The Langley Arms (hatched red)

An opportunity to purchase a substantial detached Public House in the heart of Emersons Green. The property was converted from the previous barn and outbuildings which date back to the 16th Century, retaining characterful features including exposed walls and timbers.

The main bar and seating area accommodates in the region of 50 seated customers, with a further raised seating area which serves approximately 30 seated customers. A further three lounge areas with open fire place, cellar, small bar and toilets are set to the ground floor.

To the first floor, there is a function room with characterful features and large seating areas along with separate office/utility with external access. The function room is self-contained with kitchen and customer toilets.

In addition to the vast dining areas, there is a kitchen, ground floor cellar, additional bar, and customer toilets.

Externally, the main front entrance leads to a large parking area which could also be utilised as additional outdoor seating. The main outdoor seating area is accessed to the rear or from the main lounge area.

Lot 2 – The Farmhouse (hatched blue)

This Grade 11 Listed detached farmhouse is arranged over three floors and provides laundry room, kitchen/dining room, boiler room and 9 good sized en-suite bedrooms. The accommodation is in good condition and has an abundance of character, including vaulted ceilings and wooden beams. Externally, there is a separate access for the farmhouse and extensive parking and garden.

SITUATION

The property is situated within Emersons Green, between the villages of Downend and Mangotsfield.
