LAYOUT GUIDE ONLY – NOT TO SCALE

Located on the tranquil setting of Slade Lane in the Village of Galmpton, this FOUR BEDROOM DETACHED HOUSE is set in truly stunning surroundings. The garden wraps around the property with various secluded seating areas and a profusion of year round planting, all enjoying a sunny southern aspect. The property itself is positioned to soak in the southern aspect with the majority of the principal rooms benefiting from the sunny aspect and open rolling countryside views. An open plan style lounge / dining room with central fire place looks out across the garden with a conservatory to one side, allowing easy access to the garden. The fitted kitchen comes complete with integrated appliances and a walk-in larder for added storage. There is also a handy W.C located adjacent to the entrance porch. On the first floor is a modern bathroom with shower over bath and four bedrooms, the principal room having a large balcony off and fitted wardrobes. Bedrooms three and four were originally one spacious room which could easily be reinstated if required. Driveway parking is to the front of the property with a detached garage, whilst the beautiful surrounding gardens are hidden behind the property with a productive kitchen garden to one side. Slade Lane is a quite countryside location with Galmpton Common easily accessible at one end and the local shop, post office and butchers within walking distance in the opposite direction.
